REMINISCENCES OF OUR PIONEER DAYS

By Men Who Laid the Foundation of Our County.

The Fourth of July celebration for the year 1880 in Redwood City was an unusually quiet one, the picnic which had been a feature for many years, being omitted. In the place of this, however, athletic sports were introduced for the first time. These consisted largely of foot races for various classes and ages, which were held on Main street and attracted a large number of spectators both from the town and the surrounding country. One of the most interesting of these was the 75-yard race for boys between the ages of 12 and 17 years, for which there was nearly a dozen contestants, the winner being Will Dillon, who received as a prize his first set of shirt studs. There were the usual literary exercises in the forenoon at the Germania Hall and a ball at the same place in the evening.

On the evening of July 7th, 1881, Bay View Lodge of Odd Fellows installed its officers for the new term. The new officers were William Hedley noble grand; George C. Ross, vice grand; E. A. Eikerkotter, recording secretary; J. W. Glennan, permanent secretary; P. P. Chamberlain, treasurer; D. F. Hawkes, warden; George W. Fox, conductor; B. A. Rankin, inside guard; J. Snow, outside guard; John McBain and George W. Green, supporters to noble grand.

During the same week the officers of San Mateo Lodge of Odd Fellows were installed as follows: F. A. Anderson, noble grand; John McLaren, vice grand; E. M. Breckenridge, secretary; W. C. Alt, treasurer; Henry Weigerson, warden; T. J. Jennings, conductor; G. H. Fisher, chaplain. In both instances the ceremonies were conducted by A. T. Bartlett of San Mateo, the deputy Grand Master for this district.

Here is a little notice of a wedding that may prove a pleasant and interesting reminder to some of the old residents—and to some that are not as old as they might be—taken from the Times and Gazette of July 24th, 1880: "Married, in San Francisco, July 18th, 1880, by Rev. J. M. Buhler, William Wahl to Catherine Kreig, both of Redwood City. On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, after the return of the newly wedded couple, a number of the young men of the town called to pay their respects and were most hospitably and elegantly entertained. The bride's accomplishments as a provider of home comforts and luxuries was fully proven on this occasion and the boys left with many sincere wishes for her long life and prosperity."

Here is the first intimation—given to the people of Redwood City by the Times and Gazette in its issue of September 18th, 1880—of the until then unsuspected legal attainments of a young man of whom the town had more than one occasion to feel proud: "George H. Buck, for a long time past in the employ of George H. Hanson, has, on motion of George W. Fox, Esq., been admitted to practice in the Superior Court of this State. Mr. Buck produced a certificate of his admission to the bar of the State of Maine and on this showing, with the usual proof of his good moral character, was admitted to our Courts without question. He is modest, unassuming man, whom nobody suspected of legal attainments, but who, nevertheless, is said to possess more than average abilities."

When the time approached at which it had been the custom for years to prepare for the election of county officers a decision was made by the Supreme Court for which rather upset the calculations of the politicians and spoiled the chance for one scramble for the pickings of the county offices. Under this decision it was held that the new constitution had extended the terms of the officials then holding and that none were to be elected that year. Neither of the political parties seemed inclined to accept the decision as final and both prepared to take any chances that might come either from a reversal of this opinion or the opening of any further chance to get the question into the courts. To be prepared for any of these possible contingencies, both parties held their county conventions as usual and nominated full tickets. The scramble for offices, however got no further than the nominations as before the time of the election it seems to have been made apparent that the decision of the court was to stand and no attempt was made to submit the county tickets to an election. The election, when held was confined to a choice of members of the legislature and Representatives in Congress. While the Republicans as usual captured San Mateo County, there was a difference in the result in the state in general which gave the Democrats a majority in the legislature.

PROMOTION ENTHUSIASTS HOLD A HOUSING RALLY

Enthusiasm was the keynote of a mass meeting of nearly 200 representative citizens of the peninsula at Burlingame Saturday, when the organization of the San Mateo county development board was completed.

In forming a development board, the citizens of the county have joined hands to start a strenuous campaign to boost San Mateo county for homesites and manufacturing purposes. They have not only joined hands in the movement but have pledged themselves to the financial support of the movement.

The meeting was called at 3 o'clock, Rev. W. A. Brewer, mayor of Hillsborough, was temporary chairman, and E. I. Woodman of South San Francisco acted as secretary.

H. H. Marcus, secretary of the Marin county promotion league, and W. C. Sharpstein of Oakland told of the development work being done by the transbay counties. Marcus strongly advocated patronizing home industries and also a concerted effort for the growth of the community.

A board of governors, consisting of 15 representatives from the several towns of the county and the board of supervisors, was appointed to direct the destinies of the new organization and will handle the promotion fund, which will be collected from all over the county.

It was the sense of the meeting that the county should be able to raise $500 a month by private subscription, with perhaps some assistance from the municipalities. The board proposes to open headquarters in San Francisco and have a secretary to do the work of advertising San Mateo county.

In appointing the members of the development board the cities of South San Francisco, Daly City, Burlingame, San Mateo, Redwood City and Hillsborough are each asked to appoint one delegate to act on the commission. The board of supervisors is requested to appoint one representative and the other eight members were appointed.

The board will hold a meeting in San Francisco this week and perfect organization. Another mass meeting will be held in Redwood City Saturday, April 22, when the bylaws drawn up by the board will be submitted to the approval of the citizens.

The following were appointed to act on the development board with the members appointed by the cities and board of supervisors: W. J. Martin, South San Francisco; J. M. Custer, San Bruno; F. H. Green, Millbrae; S. D. Merk, Burlingame; Captain H. N. Royden, San Mateo; Asa Hull, San Carlos; H. C. Tuchsien, Redwood City; Alvin Hatch, Halfmoon Bay.

IMITATION COWBOYS ARE TRIED; ONE IS FINED.

P. Waldo and Jas. P. Noriel, the two bogus cowboys who terrorized the village of Belmont two weeks ago while loaded with bad whiskey and assaulted two citizens, were tried in the justice court Monday before Justice McCormick of San Mateo. Justice Lamplin being disqualified. Waldo of the two, was the most vicious of the two, pleaded guilty and Noriel stood trial and was acquitted, there being no evidence that he had misbehaved to any degree.

Judge McCormick fined Waldo $50. District Attorney Swart does not think that the latter was punished enough and he will bring another charge against him hoping that he will receive an additional penalty.

If women only knew the cause that backache pains come from sick kidneys, they would save much needless worry. Doan's Kidney Pills help sick kidneys. Redwood City people endorse this remedy. Mrs. J. G. Bridgewater, Beach St., Redwood City, Calif., says: "I gladly confirm all I said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills when I publicly recommended them over two years ago. I still feel safe in saying that this remedy is the best one to be had for backache and other kidney disorders. My supply of Doan's Kidney Pills was procured at P. A. CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

Have faith in the town you live in and don't be afraid to tell about it.

Honors Nearly Equal.

Editor Times-Gazette,
Dear Sir: In the debate last Friday evening Sequoia went down to defeat, but here is nothing to be ashamed of. At San Jose Jesse Smith and Roy Woodhams were beaten but 31-9 points as San Jose gained 51-5-9 and Sequoia 48-4-9. At Redwood one judge marked the score a tie, and another gave San Jose 51-3-4 and Sequoia 48-1-4. The third judge gave San Jose 59 and Sequoia 41. This judge gave Johnson 24 on argument and Griffin but 8, and Johnson 8 on delivery and Griffin but 4. One associate judge gave Johnson 17 on argument and Griffin 15, and Johnson 5 on delivery and Griffin 4. The other judge gave Johnson 15-1-4 on argument and Griffin 14-1-2, and Johnson 5-1-4 on delivery and Griffin 4-1-2. One of the judges marking Griffin so near Johnson was Carnot medalist at Berkeley, and ought to know good debating. The judge who decided 20 points against Griffin ought to have had an opportunity to consult with his associates. It might have helped to make one feel greater respect for his judgment. The total score at Redwood, not counting the 5 added to San Jose for the victory, was 46-5-12 to 53-7-12. One judge marked C. Woodham 26-1-2 and Johnson 26-1-2, Griffin and Miss Kennedy 23-1-2 each. Another marked C. Woodham 24-3-4, Johnson 25-3-4, Miss Kennedy 23. As this was the first debating for C. Woodham he should feel pleased with the result. The defeat Friday evening throws us third in the league as Campbell has a record of 53-2-3 in the four debates of the year, and our record is 53-1-4. They will therefore have the honor of contesting San Jose for the championship of the Santa Clara Valley Debating League. As our school has the smallest enrollment of any belonging to the league we should not feel in the least discouraged.

I believe the following extract from a letter from Miss Antoinette Knowles, teacher of history and debating in the San Jose high school should be a source of encouragement to our young people. "On returning debaters were unbounded in expression of appreciation of the cordial welcome given them by your school. I wish that it were possible to secure the same amount of co-operation in a large school. I can honestly say that the team (which came to San Jose is the strongest we have met this year, either in local or state league. I think however that our students certainly have an advantage over others in having drill in the expression and debate classes. I hope that before long all our valley schools will be able to start classes in such work. Then all will be on a more equal footing."

We can now begin to lay out our plans for a fine series of contests for next year. Campbell will lose most of her fine debaters by graduation, and the same is true in some of the otherschools.

Birdman Flies Over Redwood.

Clarence H. Walker, the wealthy young aviator of San Mateo started the residents of Redwood City this week by making two spectacular flights in his aeroplane over the edge of the town. The flights were made on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

Walker made his first appearance at about 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, when he whizzed over the ground between his practice field at Palo Alto and this city. Something went wrong with his engine east of Five Points and he was compelled to come to the ground for several minutes. Several men attracted to the scene helped him to get started again.

The young birdman flew over the county jail in the face of a stiff breeze and was seen by many local people as he soared over the Frank tannery. Another accident happened to the engine near Bimont, cutting off the supply of gasoline, and Walker alighted near the Newhall place.

Asa Hull and several others helped him get a start again and he went on to San Mateo, making the 12 miles safely.

Thursday morning Walker left San Mateo at 7 o'clock sharp and passed over Redwood City about 8 minutes later, traveling at nearly 60 miles an hour. He went over the tannery and fell at a height of about 200 feet. He made the trip to his field near Palo Alto in a little over 14 minutes.

Jack Bromfield and a party of Walker's friends and mechanics left San Mateo in an automobile at the same time as Walker, but the daring birdman reached the destination 7 minutes before the machine. Walker is attracting much attention by his daring feats. He is only 23 years of age.
